POSITION: Sr. Optics Fabrication Technician

PRIMARY TASKS
To fabricate and polish all standard and custom parts using knowledge of all hand tools as well as the heavy equipment; to assure adherence to specifications and quality requirements. Follow the production schedule and meet internal and external lead times and goals.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS
- Shape, Grind and Polish all glass substrates to a minimum of 20/10 SQ and λ/10 wave flatness.
- Maintain high levels of quality on standard parts and track quality
- Provide attainable production goals to assist product scheduling
- Maintain high production levels for standard parts
- Work to Production Schedule to meet customer due date
- Schedule jobs to maximize man and machine hours
- Work on continuous improvement of procedures
- Test procedures for new product development
- Develop and implement cost control procedures

SKILLS NEEDED
- Understanding of ISO 9001
- Ability to communicate production issues to management and staff
- Experience with:
  - Shaping and grinding of optical glass
  - Double-Sided and Lap Polishing (both pitch and pad)
  - Use of all metrology and inspection tools
  - Knowledge of scratch/dig specifications

EDUCATION
- High school diploma
- Mechanical aptitude with ability to troubleshoot machine issues

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:
- Math skills
- Organizational skills
- Good communication skills
- Problem solver
- Self-starter
- Eye for optical quality

As a full-time employee of Meadowlark Optics, you are eligible to receive a comprehensive benefits package which includes a competitive salary with full benefits including health, dental, vision, paid vacation and holidays, 401(k), various incentives, etc.

For consideration, please forward resumes to Human Resources at hr@meadowlark.com.